DEFENDANTS' ANDA

22. Upon information and belief, Ranbaxy submitted ANDA No. 202427 to the FDA, under § 505(j) of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. § 355(j)), seeking approval to engage in the commercial manufacture, use, sale, offer for sale or importation of generic oxycodone hydrochloride extended release tablets, 30 mg, 40 mg, 60 mg, and 80 mg, (“proposed generic copies of OxyContin[®]”) based on the Reference Listed Drug (“RLD”) OxyContin[®], which is the subject of approved NDA No. 022272, before the expiration of the ’799, ’800, and ’072 patents.

23. Upon information and belief, Ranbaxy’s ANDA No. 202427 contains a “Paragraph IV” certification under 21 U.S.C. § 355(j)(2)(A)(vii)(IV) alleging that “no valid, enforceable claim” of the ’799, ’800, and ’072 patents listed in the FDA’s Orange Book as covering the drug OxyContin[®], which is the subject of approved NDA No. 022272, “will be infringed by the manufacture, importation, use, sale, or offer for sale” of its proposed generic copies of OxyContin[®].

24. In letters dated February 24, 2011 addressed to Plaintiff Purdue Pharma, The University of Texas System, and Grünenthal GmbH, and received by Plaintiff Purdue Pharma on February 25, 2011, Ranbaxy provided “Notice” with respect to its proposed generic copies of OxyContin[®] and the ’799, ’800, and ’072 patents under 21 U.S.C. § 355(j)(2)(B).

25. Ranbaxy’s submission of its ANDA was an act of infringement of the ’799, ’800, and ’072 patents under the United States Patent Law, 35 U.S.C. § 271(e)(2)(A).

26. Upon information and belief, Ranbaxy’s proposed generic copies of OxyContin[®] are covered by one or more claims of the ’799, ’800, and ’072 patents.

27. Upon information and belief, Ranbaxy's commercial manufacture, use, sale, and/or offer for sale of its proposed generic copies of OxyContin[®] would infringe, contribute to the infringement of, and/or induce the infringement of one or more claims of the '799, '800, and '072 patents.

28. Upon information and belief, Ranbaxy has been aware of the existence of the '799, '800, and '072 patents, and has no reasonable basis for believing that its proposed generic copies of OxyContin[®] will not infringe the '799, '800, and '072 patents, thus rendering the case "exceptional," as that term is used in 35 U.S.C. § 285.

29. The acts of infringement by Ranbaxy set forth above will cause Plaintiffs irreparable harm for which they have no adequate remedy at law, and will continue unless enjoined by this Court.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray for judgment:

A. Adjudging that Ranbaxy has infringed the '799, '800, and '072 patents, and that the commercial sale, offer for sale, use, and/or manufacture of its proposed generic copies of OxyContin[®] described in ANDA No. 202427 would infringe, induce infringement of, and/or contribute to the infringement of the '799, '800, and '072 patents;

B. Adjudging, pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271(e)(4)(A), the effective date of any approval of ANDA No. 202427, under § 505(j) of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. § 355(j)), to be a date not earlier than the dates of expiration of the '799, '800, and '072 patents plus any additional periods of exclusivity;

C. Preliminarily and permanently enjoining, pursuant to 35 U.S.C. §§ 271(e)(4)(B) and 283 and Rule 65, Fed. R. Civ. P., Ranbaxy, its officers, partners, agents, servants, employees, parents, subsidiaries, divisions, affiliate corporations, other related business entities and all other persons acting in concert, participation, or in privity with them, and their successors and assigns, from any commercial manufacture, use, offer to sell, or sale within the United States, or importation into the United States, of any drug product that infringes the '799, '800, and '072 patents;

D. Declaring this an exceptional case and awarding Plaintiffs their attorneys' fees, as provided by 35 U.S.C. §§ 271(e)(4) and 285; and

E. Awarding Plaintiffs such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.
